

RDA Pilbara welcomes new CEO

Tony Simpson has been appointed to the role of CEO and commenced on Monday 16th November 2020. Tony comes with a wealth of experience and was Minister for Local Government from 2013 to 2016 and more recently Manager for the Fortescue Bus Company in Karratha.

Diane Pentz leaves RDA Pilbara after 10 years' experience as she heads back to New Zealand to join her husband David. Anita Watts also leaves RDA Pilbara after nine years' experience and is relocating back to Perth. Terri Waddington has resigned from RDA Pilbara after eight years' experience.

Tony would like to take this opportunity to thank Diane and the team for their many years of great service to the community and he looks forward to continuing this work.

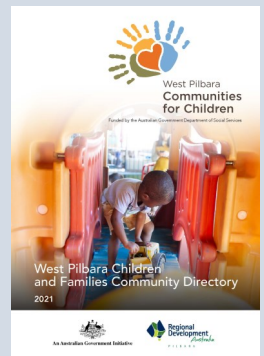

To contact Tony please phone 0427 191 272 or email ceo@rdapilbara.org.au.
